Welcome to 2016, Year of Fire & the Monkey

2016 Key Words – 'Breaking Routine'

AS 2015 WAS a year of patience, changes and turmoil 2016 is a period of fighting spirit.

This is a universal year 9, $2+0+1+6=9$ and is destined to be a momentous year and the culmination of the year 9 cycle. This is a year to remain positive with less stress and enjoyment and about enjoying the good things in life even though the world around us will still continue to be full of many changes. With the right mindset you can turn your life around and manifest all good things: love, happiness, good health. Create a life that is more focused and balanced as you tap into the universal code of astro-numerology energetics, bringing the culmination of one cycle and the beginning of a new one. When you have the ability and the will to change you will be able to release old patterns that no longer serve you.

With the year of the Monkey anything is possible as it is a year that will speed by fast with amazing energies, political tensions, and vitality and force that will support all its changes. Countries and people will unite as one, as this is a great year for communication, as the energy is right to find unconventional solutions to old problems we have in our world. This is also a good year for new inventions, businesses and new ways of thinking so long as one does not look back. As individuals this year is all about moving ahead with our lives, education and believing in our dreams.

The year of the Fire monkey is a great year to break free from restraints and take calculated risks as there is nothing more powerful and rewarding than following your heart's desires and allowing yourself to create your own perfect world and dreams. It is also a perfect time to reconsider your social life, love life, work and health as it is out with the bad and in with the good. Negative people will no longer have a place in your life as their destructive, soul destroying energy will no longer fit into this new lifestyle and way of living the life that you deserve and need.

Practical Tips for 2016

Put your seat belts on this is a fast, paced year and powerful for many. Surrender yourself to the powerful universal energies and make way for the new you that is beginning to emerge from deep within.

This is a year to examine, what you have already accumulated in your life and what really works for you but to let go of situations, irritations and relationships that no longer serve you, so you can shine in the world.

It is also a time to empower yourself with constructive ideas and to simply Feng Shui your life with more positive thought forms, ideologies and solutions. This means stepping out of your comfort zone, being really positive and focus on the good things you have or need in your life. Change can sometimes be full of fear, anxiety and anticipation, but without it you will never grow and move on to a more loving and exciting reality.
